

Dear Fred,

My name is Amanda Roman and I attended the Build your Business weekend seminar on February 20th and 21st. I own a dog training company and it is a very new business.

I enjoyed the weekend immensely and am very excited about applying everything I learned to my business. Not only do I know where to go next but I have now implemented many of the systems taught and have a much more successful and organized business. Before this weekend I was at a loss of where to go next with my business and how to take it to the next level. I found that I was putting in a lot of work without much reward. Since the course I now feel that my business can finally start working for me.

The course itself was very enjoyable and easy to comprehend. It kept me engaged and was even a little humorous. Not only did I learn about how to run a successful business, I also learned a lot about myself. I now have a better idea of how to relate to my clients and a better idea of how to obtain new ones. This was by far one of the best seminars I have ever attended and I will be recommending it to coworkers, family and friends.

I'm happy to answer further questions to anyone considering Fred's courses or workshops and would be pleased to speak with them directly.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Amanda Roman (CET)
